

I feel I should be the envy of all daughters everywhere.

What an incredible privilege to have had as my own mum, the person so many wished to be theirs.

She always encouraged me. Told me she loved me and was proud. Comforted me and admired me.

She gave me the foundations for life- security and unconditional love.

I will always miss her.

I will miss her company and her touch but I will always have all that LOVE that she gave to me.

It is locked into my heart for me to cherish and to pass on.

Nothing can ever take that away from me.

It is precious and it is mine, forever.

She ended every text to me with the words, 'love forever mum', and that is exactly what she has done.
